Title:

Nelleke Nix and Marianne Huber Collection: The Frida Kahlo Papers

Provenance:

The collection was given by Frida Kahlo to Dr. Leo Eloesser, her friend and medical advisor. The date of this transfer is unknown; however, the vintage of the correspondence contained in the collection indicates this must have happened in the early 1950's. Eloesser retained custody of the collection after Kahlo's death. Upon the death of Eloesser in 1976, the collection passed to his personal secretary, Ms. Josefa Vera Rodriguez. It remained in her possession until 1996, when it was sold to Nelleke Langhout Nix and Marianne Huber. The collection was appraised by Louis Collins of Seattle, WA in December 2006 and donated by Nelleke Langhout Nix to the National Museum of Women in the Arts in January 2007. Supporting documentation for this custodial history is located in the collection dossier housed in the Library and Research Center.

Collection Dates:

Inclusive Dates: 1930-1954
Bulk Dates: 1930-1935

Physical Description:

4 boxes (approx. 1.75 linear feet)

Summary:

Frida Kahlo was a 20th century Mexican painter who is now famous for her striking self-portraits. This collection consists mainly of 369 letters written by or to Kahlo as well as various drawings and printed matter.

Publication and Photocopies Note:

Permission from the National Museum of Women in the Arts required for publication and reproduction of original materials. Photocopies of original materials can be made for a fee and at the discretion of the library director.

Processed by:

Jason Stieber, December 2007

Processing Note:

The collection was received in 14 bound portfolios prepared by the donor, Nelleke Nix, and titled by groups of correspondents or loose series description. The donor had sleeved most of the items in polyester or mylar and had prepared an item-level inventory. The collection was received in excellent condition with minimal folds, fading, or brittleness. Some letters in Series 2 exhibit water damage and bright pink splotches, which seem to indicate active mold; however, closer examination reveals none of the other indicators of mold, such as surface fuzziness or acrid scent. During processing, all items were removed from the portfolios and each leaf was sleeved individually in mylar or polyester to isolate any possible spores. All materials were separated into three series and placed in acid-free folders. The collection is housed in four acid-free manuscript boxes located in the Library and Research Center.

The collection was processed in 2007 by Jason Stieber and reprocessed in March 2012 by Jennifer Page.

The following monographs were consulted during the preparation of biographical notes, chronology, and box inventory for this guide:

Biographical Note

Mexican painter Frida Kahlo was the third of four daughters born to a German Hungarian father and a mother of Spanish and Mexican Indian descent. She did not originally plan to become an artist. At age fifteen Kahlo entered the premedical program at the prestigious National Preparatory School in Mexico City. However, this training ended three years later when Kahlo was gravely injured in a bus accident. She spent more than a year in bed, recovering from fractures of her back, collarbone, ribs, and pelvis, as well as shoulder and foot injuries. Despite more than thirty subsequent operations, Kahlo spent the rest of her life in constant pain, finally succumbing to related complications at age forty-seven.

During her recovery from the 1925 bus accident, Kahlo began to paint with oils. Her pictures, mostly self-portraits and still lifes, were deliberately naïve and filled with the bright colors and flattened forms of the Mexican folk art she always loved. At twenty-one, Kahlo met and fell in love with the famous Mexican muralist Diego Rivera, whose approach to art and political activism complemented her own. Although he was twenty years her senior, they were married in 1929. This high-profile relationship survived marital infidelities on both sides, the pressures of Rivera's career, a divorce and remarriage, and Kahlo's deteriorating health. Kahlo traveled with Rivera to the United States and to France, where she encountered luminaries from the worlds of art and politics. She had her first one-woman exhibition at the Julien Levy Gallery in New York in 1938. She was in numerous group exhibitions throughout her life and, just prior to her death, was honored by a retrospective exhibition at Lola Álvarez Bravo's Galería de Arte Contemporáneo in Mexico City.

Chronology

- 1907 Magdalena Carmen Frida Kahlo y Calderón is born on July 6 in Coyoacán, Mexico to Matilde Calderón y González and Guillermo Kahlo.
- 1914 Kahlo contracts polio and spends nine months in bed. Her right leg and foot are permanently damaged by the illness.
- 1922 Kahlo begins pre-medical studies at the Escuela Nacional Preparatoria in Mexico City. She is one of only 34 women in the student body.
- 1925 On September 17, a bus Kahlo is riding is struck by a streetcar. She sustains severe injuries to her spine, pelvis and right foot. She returns home from the hospital in October and begins to paint.
- 1927 Kahlo joins the Young Communist League.
- 1928 Kahlo meets Diego Rivera through photographer Tina Modotti. She joins the Mexican Communist Party.
- 1929 Kahlo and Rivera marry on August 21.
- 1930 Kahlo becomes pregnant but must abort the pregnancy due to her pelvic injuries. Kahlo and Rivera travel to San Francisco where Rivera has mural commissions at the California School of Fine Arts and the Luncheon Club of the California Stock Exchange. Kahlo meets Dr. Leo Eloesser.
- 1931 Kahlo and Rivera travel to New York City where the Museum of Modern Art is mounting a retrospective of Rivera's work. Kahlo meets artist Lucienne Bloch.
- 1932 Kahlo and Rivera travel to Detroit where Rivera has been commissioned to paint a mural at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Kahlo's second pregnancy ends in miscarriage on July 4. Kahlo's mother dies on September 15. Juan O'Gorman begins construction on the Rivera residence in San Angel.

- 1933 Kahlo and Rivera travel again to New York City where Rivera has been invited to paint a mural at the RCA Building at Rockefeller Center. After his inclusion of Lenin's likeness in the mural sparks a public outcry, the commission is withdrawn. Kahlo and Rivera return to Mexico in December.
- 1934 Kahlo's third pregnancy is terminated. Kahlo discovers an affair between Rivera and her sister Cristina.
- 1935 Kahlo and Rivera separate briefly but soon reconcile. Kahlo begins affair with American sculptor Isamu Noguchi.
- 1937 Leon and Natalia Trotsky arrive in Mexico, where they have been granted political asylum at the request of Rivera. Leon Trotsky and Kahlo have a brief affair. Kahlo exhibits four paintings in a group exhibition at the Galería de Arte of the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México.
- 1938 Kahlo has her first one-woman exhibition at the Julien Levy Gallery in New York City in November. Half of the paintings are sold. She meets André Breton. Kahlo begins affair with Hungarian-American photographer Nickolas Muray.
- 1939 Kahlo travels to Paris to participate in the exhibition Mexique, organized by Marcel Duchamp and André Breton. Kahlo appears on the covers of Coronet and French Vogue. Kahlo's self-portrait The Frame is purchased by the Louvre. Kahlo and Rivera divorce on November 6.
- 1940 Kahlo exhibits The Two Fridas and The Wounded Table at the International Exhibition of Surrealism in Mexico City. Trotsky is assassinated on August 20 by Ramón Mercader. Kahlo and Rivera remarry in San Francisco on December 8.
- 1941 Guillermo Kahlo dies in April.
- 1942 Kahlo begins teaching at "La Esmeralda" school of painting and sculpture. Construction begins on Anahuacalli, a museum to house Rivera's collection of pre-Columbian idols.
- 1943 One of Kahlo's self-portraits is included in an exhibition at the Art of This Century gallery entitled Women Artists. Three of Kahlo's works are included in the exhibition Mexican Art Today at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.
- 1944 Kahlo begins keeping a diary.

- 1946 Kahlo wins a national painting prize from the Palacio de Bellas Artes. She and Cristina travel to New York City in June where Kahlo is scheduled for surgery to fuse four vertebrae.
- 1947 The Museo de Arte Moderno purchases Kahlo's The Two Fridas. Kahlo's fourth pregnancy ends in miscarriage.
- 1950 Kahlo's right foot is stricken with gangrene, and a bone infection forces her to stay at the English Hospital in Mexico City for nine months.
- 1951 Kahlo's use of painkillers, injections, and alcohol increases dramatically.
- 1953 Lola Álvarez Bravo organizes Kahlo's first one-woman exhibition at the Galería de Arte Contemporáneo in Mexico City. Due to gangrene, Kahlo's right leg is amputated below the knee. Her work is included in the Exhibition of Mexican Art from Pre-Columbian Times to the Present Day at the Tate Gallery in London.
- 1954 In June, Kahlo is hospitalized for pneumonia. Kahlo dies on July 13. The official cause of death is pulmonary embolism.

Scope and Content Note

The Nelleke Nix and Marianne Huber Collection: The Frida Kahlo Papers consists of 369 letters, postcards, notes, clippings, printed matter, and drawings related to the life and work of Frida Kahlo. Multi-page correspondence constitutes the majority of the collection. A small group of six drawings is also present, although four of these drawings have not yet been authoritatively attributed to Kahlo's hand. The collection ranges in dates from 1930 to 1954, with the bulk of material dating between 1930 and 1935. A significant portion of the collection is a group of letters between Kahlo and her family, most notably her mother and father. The content of these letters is intimate and tracks some of the most formative years of Kahlo's artistic development. They reflect her impressions of the United States as well as her opinions on politics, art, and the art world as she traveled with husband Diego Rivera to San Francisco, Detroit, and New York. Other significant correspondents represented in the collection are Juan O'Gorman, Walter Pach, Emmy Lou Packard, Ella and Bertram Wolfe, Mary Sklar, Lucienne Bloch, and Diego Rivera.

Organization and Arrangement Information

Arrangement Note:

This collection is divided into three series:

Series 1: Correspondence: 1930-1954, and undated

Series 2: Drawings: 1944, ca. 1951, and undated

Series 3: Printed Matter: 1931, 1944, and undated

Series 1, Correspondence, contains correspondence between Frida Kahlo and her family, friends, artistic acquaintances, business associates, and others. The series is arranged at the folder level by the surname of the correspondent or the organizational name (in the case of corporate correspondents). For each correspondent or organizational name, folders and letters are arranged chronologically. The series also contains a small number of handwritten receipts of sale, five poems by Guillermo Kahlo as well as two works of prose by unidentified individuals.

Series 2, Drawings, consists of pencil and ink drawings of various subjects. They are arranged first by artist, then by title, although each title is merely descriptive and not assigned by the artist. Some of the drawings may be from Kahlo, but they have not been authoritatively attributed to her hand. This series also contains two child-like renderings by Antonio Kahlo and an individual identified only as Manuel.

Series 3, Printed Matter, consists of a small amount of material relating to trips, exhibition invitations, and clippings from magazines and newspapers. These are organized by descriptive title.
